DEDICATION

I would like to thank my parents: Edna and Danilo Blancaflor, thank you for your unending support to my what I am doing and pursuing. To my professors, thank you for teaching us technically and practically. To all of my friends (too many to mention), thank you for your support and trust. To my school friends, thank you for being helpful and "building each other" attitude. To my beloved organization .MOVE, thank you for your trust, to the officers thank you for your honest critic, openness and to all members thank you for your "learning attitude". To my leaders, thank you for your reminders, corrections, rebuke it really helps me to be a better person. And to my Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, whitout him I am nothing and cannot do anything.

ARTIST STATEMENT

Dedication, effort, and hard-work. Woah big word! want to learn new things, explore new things and put that in my artworks. But the real thing that I want to do is to create story telling through film. Showing is where I express myself to the audience and that what makes me unique as an artist. (Is that really unique? lol)
