

Lord of All

Blessed Lord our Redeemer, Our Saviour and Creator

We Cry to thee for Mercies, as the world sinks in Miseries

The Horns of Plagues have sounded; Man's strength has grounded

Mankind's Sins has kindled thy wrath; Thy judgement in idiopathic!!

Earth has become wilderness; folks earthed in deep distress

Who can prevail against the God of Israel?

We lift our eyes unto heaven; The lord of hosts our Saviour

The Author of Salvation; the key; the Finisher!!

We cry to thee for our protection; Oh! for thou are resurrection.

Help us to confess and repent; so then thy Grace descend,

For when we humble; thy Grace never stumble;

Thy sight has found us Precious; let us be Gracious,

For your Mercy is for all and so let us crown you the Lord of All !!
