

Hello,

My name is Sabrina Jeongco and I'm here to address all your content writing needs.

In my previous position as a museum intern for the Museum of Contemporary Art & Design, I wrote the museum's quarterly email newsletters. While I was a study abroad intern for edukasyon.ph, I wrote SEO optimised articles for their Study Abroad blog. I also wrote featured blog articles for ZALORA Group's fashion & lifestyle content website, THREAD by Zalora. I also have experience with copywriting for ZALORA's main fashion retail website.

I am capable of quickly producing well-written and engaging content at a very reasonable rate. If you want someone reliable and communicative, you've found the right person.

Feel free to have a look at the sample work and CV that I've uploaded to the site. I look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,

Sabrina Jeongco
