My name is Aishath Shanasa Shiyam. I am a student finishing my bachelor's degree in Interior Architecture at Limkokwing University from 2015-2019. I provide services in Photoshop, Illustrator, 3D as a freelancer.

I love to explore in all fields of my inspiration to keep the creative flow constantly moving and improving with a curious interest for travel, nature and life, I wish to embark on journeys that push me to learn as challenges are overcome.

EMBRACING TECHNOLOGY IN PALM OIL

RS Cloud, a pioneer in the Palm Oil Industry Cloud Database technology is designed to provide a secure platform for business owners to store and track data. RS Cloud enables estate/mill owners to oversee all aspects of operations and MSPO compliance in real time.

It is built on Jeff Bezos's Amazon cloud computing platform and designed with the security, compliance and resiliency that the palm oil industry requires.
