The image is a composite of architectural and technical elements. In the background, there are architectural blueprints with various lines, dimensions, and labels like 'UP', 'KITCHEN', and 'BATH1'. Overlaid on this is a glowing cyan wireframe structure that resembles a building's internal framework or a complex grid. In the foreground, there is a blue protractor and a pair of compasses, both rendered in a semi-transparent style. The overall aesthetic is clean, technical, and modern.
