Homemade DIY Hair Mask For Dandruff

Ingredients

Method

Why This Works

Hibiscus is one of the oldest remedies for treating dandruff¹. The antibacterial properties of hibiscus may help solve dandruff issues². Fenugreek seeds also help fight against the dandruff-causing fungus³.

⚡ Little Deeds To Keep Your PISCES Happy

Accompany them in their creative impulses.

They flow like water. If you get in their way, they will either flow their way around you, or build themselves up to wash over you.

When they seek your help and advice, do not be condescending.

Be kind, polite, and honest.

Give them handmade gifts and handwritten notes.

They love to play with water. Save the water borne diseases talk for a Life Sciences symposium.

Punctuate your words with actions.

They are sensitive about birthdays, no matter how old they get. It does not have to be a grand celebration, but if you share a bond with them, you are not allowed to forget it.

Bring them their comfort food (when they feel low) - they have a huge list of them, usually unhealthy.

There is no such thing as "too-cringy" with a Piscean. Shower them with lots of attention.

Despite their love for attention, they also need "me-time" to gather their thoughts. So, provide them their space.

Encourage their quirks - they are delightful and plenty.

They love a clean sense of humor - dad jokes and slapstick cracks them up.

Make them a playlist of songs with beautiful, meaningful lyrics.

Watch romantic movies with them - keep a tissue box handy.

Excellent For Cuticle Care

It will nourish your cuticles and aid in nail growth. Apply a little rosehip oil to your cuticles and nail beds the next time you give yourself a home manicure.

Hydrates The Scalp

The oil is also fantastic for your scalp, especially if it's dry and flaky. Simply massage a small amount of rosehip oil into your scalp like any other oil therapy the next time you wash your hair. Leave it on for 30 minutes or overnight.

Can Also Be Used To Remove Makeup

Yes, it can be used to remove eye makeup. You may, of course, use it to remove all of your other makeup as well.

Works Well As A Lip Gloss

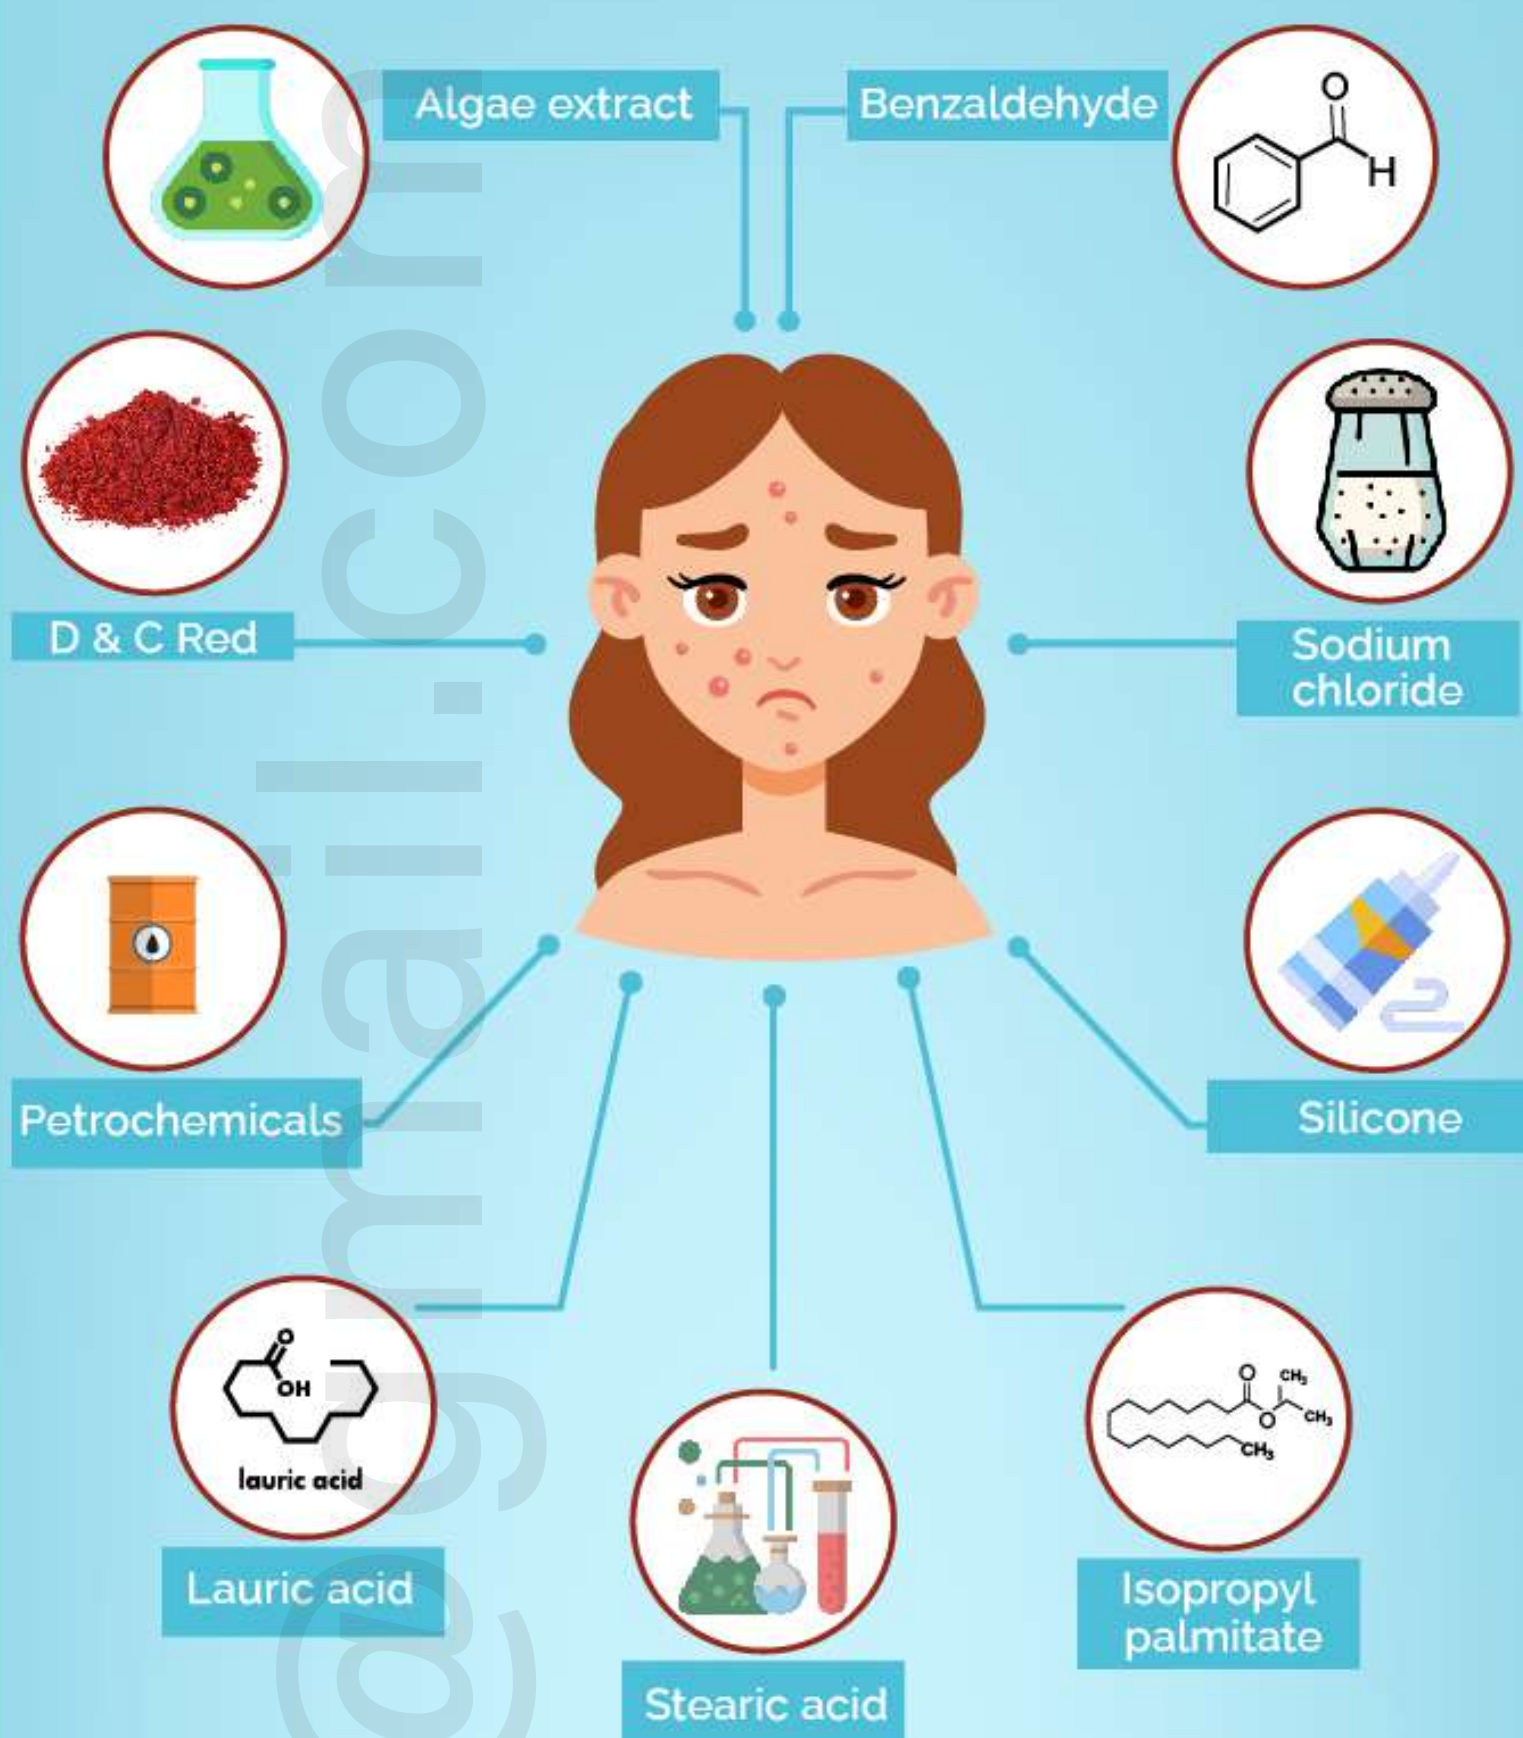

Rosehip oil is a great alternative to lip gloss if you like the look but not the mushy feel (or taste) of conventional lip glosses. You can also dab it on a matte lipstick to brighten it up.

How To Use Grapefruit Oil

You can wear it as perfume. Though its scent does not last long, it is quite uplifting while it lasts.

Inhale it by using a vaporizer or an aromatherapy diffuser.

You should apply it to the skin after diluting or add it to your bathwater.

Mix a few drops of grapefruit essential oil with a carrier oil and use it to rub or massage out any knots.

Add it to a relaxing hand or foot soak.
