BRANDING Project

Newmaric Watch Project

---

CLIENT:
Newmaric

I designed a complete brand package for NewMaric Watch Company. This includes a stylish logo, a professional business card, an attractive flyer, and a cool t-shirt design. The logo is a mix of classic and modern styles, the business card looks sharp, the flyer shows off their watches, and the t-shirt is trendy. These elements help NewMaric stand out as a top-notch watch brand for both watch lovers and fashion-conscious buyers.

Tutor Project

CLIENT:
Tutor

I made a branding package for Tutor, including a logo, business card, flyer, mug design, and desk calendar. The logo has a book and graduation cap, and I used blue and gold colors. The business card makes it easy for tutors and clients to connect. The flyer shows Tutor's services with pictures and quotes. The mug has the logo and quotes, and the desk calendar has educational quotes too. This branding makes Tutor look trustworthy and professional, with a memorable identity.

Why Us

START HERE

- We find the best new option for getting returns (or interest) on our money.
- We work out what our opportunity cost is for not doing it (the return on a savings envelope, is zero for example).
- We compare our new option to our opportunity cost, and choose the one where the higher returns are worth any slightly higher risk.
- Higher returns for slightly more risk is how we build our investment portfolio.

GENIE BOUCHARD TALKS TOMMY HAAS

"Come on, let's go" between every single point. You would think this is like the finals of Wimbledon. But then, at the same time, he goes to serve and he's like, "I'm just going to try put it in." Sometimes I go tee and I was like, "All right, like, this is not super helpful for me." So we just told each other to put the ball in the court."
