VIRENDER YADAV

WEB DESIGNER & FRONT-END DEVELOPER

CAREER OBJECTIVES

I am a website designer based in India. I specialise in web designing & front-end developer. I create beautiful, usable, professional websites using best practice accessibility and the latest W3C web standards guidelines. For building websites my weapons of choice are photoshop, Brackets to produce clean semantic HTML5 and CSS3.

I'm constantly learning web technologies and other design related topics.

I love to code, and I love my work.
